Feng Shui Certificate

This is to certify that the CONCERTO excimer laser system has been surveyed to the following Feng Shui characteristics:

Patient, Physician, Resonance, Yin and Yang, Color, Measures, Element, Form, Location

„The CONCERTO gives an impressive answer in its form to the search of the patient – who is always the center of attention – for a state of security, release and rest. The CONCERTO enters into the closest of relationships with the patient, without thereby losing any of its suggestive power. It projects a breathtaking reflection of modernity. With its inherent fortune, the CONCERTO is in continual transformation, existing in the alternation of opposing forces, in search of balance. The CONCERTO remains calm in its ceaseless movement - the stasis of the stately does get lost. The Concerto is a source of inspiration with the spirit of optimism for the healing of the patient and the success of the physician.“
